2. ACCEPTANCE:

This Order is expressly limited to and is expressly made on Supplier’s acceptance of the terms and conditions herein. Upon the earliest of Supplier’s acknowledgement or statement of intent to furnish any Goods and/or Services described in this Order, the furnishing or shipment thereof, or the commencement of performance by Supplier pursuant to this Order, Supplier confirms it has read these terms and conditions, this Order shall be deemed accepted subject exclusively to these terms and conditions and Supplier agrees to be bound by all of its terms and conditions, without alteration or addition. Buyer hereby rejects and objects to any modified, additional or different terms and conditions which it has not accepted or does not accept in writing.

3. CONFORMANCE:

The provision of all Goods and the performance of all Services pursuant to this Order shall be free from defects in design, material, manufacture and workmanship, in accordance with the description which forms part of this Order and in conformance with the Specifications, with all applicable laws, regulations, orders and permits, and with all applicable industry standards in the jurisdiction where same are delivered to, or performed for, Buyer, and shall be provided and performed in a timely, efficient and workmanlike manner.

4. SERVICES:

- (a) Unless otherwise agreed to by Buyer in writing, Supplier shall furnish at its own cost and expense any and all necessary labour, machinery, equipment, tools, transportation and other inputs required to perform the Services. - (c) Supplier shall, and shall cause its Representatives to, comply with all Buyer’s policies, procedures, rules and regulations provided to Supplier. Failure to comply with such policies, procedures, rules or regulations shall, in Buyer’s sole discretion, be grounds for immediate termination of this Order and the work in progress, with no further obligation to Supplier other than payment for Services provided prior to the date of such termination.
- (d) If Buyer determines (acting reasonably) the performance of a Representative to be unsatisfactory in any material respect, Supplier agrees to remove that Representative from the provision of the Services promptly upon notice from Buyer. If a Representative is removed in accordance with this Subsection, Supplier shall be responsible for all costs associated with the expeditious restoration of the knowledge, skills or other resources displaced thereby.

5. INSPECTION:

- (a) To the extent applicable, Supplier shall ensure that Buyer and Buyer’s representatives at all times have reasonable access, during normal business hours and upon prior notice, to Supplier’s and Supplier’s suppliers’ and subcontractors’ places of business at which Supplier or Supplier’s supplier(s) and subcontractor(s) are performing Supplier’s obligations under this Order. Supplier shall provide Buyer with safe and proper facilities for access, testing, and inspection of the Goods and/or Services. - (c) Goods delivered in error or rejected hereunder, or overages in excess of trade practice shall be returned to Supplier at Supplier's sole expense and risk. 6. PRICE:

The price for all Goods and/or Services set forth in this Order is firm.

7. TAXES:

- (a) All taxes shall be disclosed as separate line items on Supplier's invoice. Supplier is exclusively liable for, and shall pay before delinquency, all taxes, levies, duties and assessments imposed or levied in respect of the provision of the Goods and Services contracted for hereunder (other than any applicable sales tax or any other applicable consumption tax payable by Buyer as the purchaser of the Goods and/or Services). Supplier shall indemnify, defend, save and hold harmless Buyer Group from and against all losses that arise out of, or are attributable to the imposition by a government agency of (i) any taxes applicable to the Goods and/or Services, or any transfer of tangible personal property pursuant to this Order, (ii) any other taxes arising out of Supplier's operations that may be imposed on or collected from Buyer Group or become an encumbrance against Buyer or its assets, and (iii) any cost for complying with applicable laws of any government agency relating to taxes.
- (b) If Supplier is or becomes a non-resident for the purposes of applicable law, Supplier shall ensure each invoice issued to Buyer identifies that portion of this Order performed as a non-resident and the value of that portion, and Buyer shall be entitled to withhold that amount from payment of any invoice and remit same to the applicable taxing authority. Such amounts shall be deemed to have been paid to Supplier on their due dates, provided that Buyer shall furnish to Supplier reasonable evidence of such payments.

8. TERMS OF PAYMENT:

- (a) Buyer shall pay Supplier any undisputed amounts owing pursuant to this Order within 60 days of Buyer's receipt of Supplier's correct, conforming and undisputed invoice submitted in accordance with Section 9 unless otherwise noted on the face of this Order.
- (b) Buyer shall be entitled to deduct and retain all such amounts as may be prescribed or permitted pursuant to all applicable lien or equivalent legislation or otherwise prescribed or permitted by applicable laws.

If Buyer should dispute all or part of any invoice submitted by Supplier pursuant to the terms hereof, Buyer shall provide written notice of the reason for the dispute, including any factual or contractual basis, to Supplier within the aforementioned 60 day period. In the event that Supplier provides an updated invoice for the undisputed amount or at Buyer's option, Buyer may remit payment of any undisputed portion of the invoice within 60 days of receipt, but may withhold the disputed portion of the invoice until the dispute has been resolved.

9. INVOICES:

Supplier shall send invoices in accordance with the invoicing instructions noted on the face of this Order. Supplier shall include on the invoice the Order number, the corresponding Order line item, and a full description of the items invoiced. Prices referenced in the invoice must correspond with the prices shown on this Order. To the extent expressly permitted hereunder, invoices for reimbursable charges, expenses, and/or third party charges shall include adequate supporting documentation as required by Buyer. In the event freight is not included in the Order price, and is prepaid by Supplier, such freight charges shall be invoiced as a separate line item on the invoice with receipted copies of freight bills attached.

The following items shall be listed separately: (a) sales, use, and excise taxes; (b) any portion of the Services performed as a non-resident; (c) applicable surcharges; (d) refundable deposits; (e) any special charges for packing, boxing or crating; and (f) any packaging materials.

10. RESPONSIBILITY FOR PROPERTY:

To the extent that this Order permits or requires property of Buyer to be in the care, custody, and/or control of Supplier, Supplier shall be responsible for all loss and damages to said property from the time such property is received by Supplier or its Representative, and Supplier shall return said property to Buyer in accordance with the terms of this Order or, upon Buyer's request, in a condition at least as good as when said property was received by Supplier, reasonable wear and tear excepted. SUPPLIER ACKNOWLEDGES THAT BUYER HAS NOT MADE AND DOES NOT MAKE ANY REPRESENTATION, WARRANTY OR COVENANT, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED WITH RESPECT TO THE CONDITION, QUALITY, DURABILITY, OR SUITABILITY OF SUCH PROPERTY.

11. TITLE AND RISK:

Except for property described in Section 10, title to and risk of any loss of or damage to any Goods shall pass from Supplier to Buyer when such Goods are unloaded and Buyer takes delivery thereof at the delivery point contemplated in this Order (or if no such point is contemplated, upon Buyer's written confirmation of taking delivery). For the avoidance of doubt, (i) passing of title upon such delivery shall not constitute acceptance of the Goods, and (ii) Supplier assumes all risk and liability for loss, damage or injury to Persons or to properties of Supplier or any other Person, or in respect of any other liabilities including clean-up costs in respect of any spill or any other claims arising out of the transportation, storage or handling of the Goods while the Goods are in transit until Buyer takes delivery of such Goods as contemplated herein. In the event this Order provides that a delivery of Goods shall be made in accordance with the Incoterms 2020 rules published by the International Chamber of Commerce ("Incoterms"), such Incoterms shall only apply to the extent the terms associated therewith do not conflict with the terms of this Section 11. For greater clarity, in the event there is a conflict between any Incoterms set out on the face of this Order and this Section 11, this Section 11 shall prevail.

12. LIENS:

Provided that Buyer has made all payments required pursuant to this Order, other than those which it has disputed in good faith, Supplier shall and shall cause its Representatives to: (i) keep the property and premises of Buyer, its Affiliates and those third parties where Goods are delivered or Services are performed on behalf of Buyer free and clear of all liens, charges and encumbrances arising by reason of having provided labour, materials or equipment relating to the Goods provided or the Services performed hereunder; (ii) not cause or allow to be filed any mechanic's liens, materialmen's liens or other liens or encumbrances arising by reason of having provided labour, materials or equipment relating to the Goods provided or the Services performed hereunder; and (iii) defend, indemnify and hold Buyer Group harmless from and against any and all such liens and encumbrances.

Supplier warrants that upon submittal of an invoice pursuant to the terms hereof, no Person shall have any liens, claims, security interests or encumbrances, or to the best of Supplier's knowledge, have any right to liens, claims, security interests or encumbrances, by reason of having provided labour, materials or equipment relating to the Goods provided or the Services performed hereunder.

13. WARRANTIES:

- (a) For the Goods sold hereunder, Supplier warrants as follows:
  - (i) the Goods shall conform to the provisions of Section 3;

- (ii) the Goods, as described herein, are new and of merchantable quality;
  - (iii) the Goods are fit for the particular purpose stated in this Order or elsewhere in documentation provided by Supplier or Buyer;
  - (iv) the Goods do not infringe the Intellectual Property rights of any third party; and
  - (v) at the time of delivery of the Goods, the Goods shall be free and clear of all liens, claims, security interests or encumbrances.
- (b) In the event the Goods, or any portion thereof, do not, in Buyer's reasonable opinion, comply with any of the warranties set out in Section 13(a), Buyer may, at Supplier's sole risk and expense, in addition to all other express and implied remedies prescribed by law, elect to:
- (i) reject or revoke acceptance of the Goods or any portion thereof and receive a full refund for all the Goods so rejected or withhold payments for such Goods if such payments have not been made; provided that rejection or revocation of only a portion of the Goods shall not impact the remaining shipment of Goods, to which the terms of this Order shall apply;
  - (ii) require Supplier to repair or replace the Goods;
  - (iii) repair or replace the Goods and recover from Supplier all expenses reasonably incurred by Buyer for such repair or replacement; or
  - (iv) retain the Goods and assert a right to compensation for breach of contract.
- (c) The warranties set out in Section 13(a) shall survive until the later of the date which is:
- (i) 12 months from the date of commercial operation of or use of the Goods; or
  - (ii) 24 months from date of shipment of the Goods, unless otherwise specified in this Order.
- (d) For the Services supplied hereunder, Supplier warrants that:
- (i) the Services shall conform to the provisions of Section 3;
  - (ii) the Services shall be performed in a safe and environmentally sound manner and in performing the Services, Supplier shall exercise the level of skill, care, diligence and workmanship that would be expected of an experienced, skilled, competent and reputable contractor specializing in the provision of services comparable to the Services;
  - (iii) the Services do not infringe the Intellectual Property rights of any third party; and
  - (iv) it has the skills, expertise, experience and resources to properly perform the Services in a timely and efficient manner, without undue interference to Buyer and that it will deploy sufficient resources and personnel to so perform the Services.
- (e) In the event that the Services, or any portion thereof, do not, in Buyer's reasonable opinion, comply with any of the warranties set out in Section 13(d), Buyer may, at Supplier's sole risk and expense, in addition to all other express or implied remedies prescribed by law, elect to:
- (i) require Supplier to re-perform the Services;
  - (ii) perform the Services itself or hire a third party to perform such Services and recover from Supplier all expenses reasonably incurred by Buyer in respect of such performance; or
  - (iii) assert a right to compensation for breach of contract.

- (f) The warranties for the Services set out in Section 13(d) shall survive until the date which is 12 months from the completion of the Services.
- (g) Notwithstanding any termination of this Order, all warranties, whether express or implied, shall continue in full force and effect for the entire term of such warranty. Supplier shall notify Buyer of any manufacturer or subcontractor warranty(ies), and Supplier shall assign to Buyer and, upon written notice from Buyer, enforce for Buyer's benefit, any such warranty(ies) obtained from such manufacturers or subcontractors. Each such warranty shall be in addition to and not in substitution of the warranties set out herein. No acceptance of or payment for the Goods or Services provided hereunder shall operate as a waiver of the warranties and representations in this Section 13, any Supplier standard warranty, or any manufacturer or subcontractor warranty and the rights of Buyer thereunder.
- (h) All Goods repaired or replaced, and all Services re-performed, by Supplier pursuant to the terms of this Section 13 shall conform to the terms of this Section 13 for an additional 12 months from the date of commercial operation of such repaired or replaced Goods, or from the date such Services are re-performed.
- (i) The warranty period for Goods shall be extended by a period equal to the sum of any periods during which the Goods cannot be used for the purpose for which they were intended during the warranty period by reason of a breach of the warranties above.
- (j) Notwithstanding the expiration of any warranty period described herein, Supplier's warranty obligations shall extend to correcting any defects in Goods or Services of which Buyer has given Supplier notice prior to the expiration of such warranty period and to latent defects discovered at any time thereafter. The expiration of any particular warranty period shall not affect any other representation or warranty made hereunder, each of which shall survive, independently, in the manner provided herein.

14. DELIVERY:

TIME IS OF THE ESSENCE IN THE PERFORMANCE OF SUPPLIER'S OBLIGATIONS. Delivery of Goods and performance of Services shall be made at the location(s), on the date(s) and in the quantity(ies) specified in this Order. No change in the scheduled delivery date or performance will be permitted without Buyer's prior written consent. If Supplier suspects that it cannot deliver the Goods or perform the Services within the time specified in this Order for any reason, Supplier shall give Buyer immediate notice and advise Buyer of the earliest possible delivery date. No acceptance of Goods or Services after the scheduled delivery date will waive Buyer's rights with respect to such late delivery, and it shall not be deemed a waiver of future compliance. If delivery of conforming Goods or performance of conforming Services is not completed by the time(s) specified in this Order, or if Supplier breaches any other term or condition of this Order, Buyer may, at its option, without liability and in addition to any other rights and remedies that it may have: (i) terminate this Order for cause, (ii) refuse to accept the Goods or Services, (iii) reject in whole or in part the Goods or Services not yet rendered, (iv) purchase substitute Goods or Services elsewhere and charge Supplier, (v) hold Supplier liable for any loss, expense or damage incurred, and/or (vi) require Supplier to deliver Goods or Services in the most expeditious means at no additional cost to Buyer. Any provision herein for the delivery of Goods or performance of Services in installments shall not be construed as making Supplier's obligations severable.

15. FORCE MAJEURE:

- (a) When used herein, "Event of Force Majeure" shall mean one of the following events or conditions beyond the control and without the fault of the affected Party arising after the commencement of Supplier's performance under this Order that could not with the exercise of best efforts, including the development and execution of the business continuity plan as contemplated below, have been prevented: (i) acts of God, such as catastrophic or unusually severe floods, fires, earthquakes, tornadoes, droughts, typhoons, hurricanes, explosions, volcanic activity or other unusually severe natural weather events which could not have reasonably been anticipated and which are in no sense attributable to human agency; (ii) expropriation or confiscation of land or personal property by order of any government or public authority; (iii) war, rebellion, revolution, state of hostilities, invasion or martial law; (iv) terrorist acts officially confirmed as such by the government of the location in which such act occurred; (v) sabotage; (vi) contamination by radioactivity; (vii) riot, civil unrest, civil disturbances or civil uprisings requiring the use of police, military or governmental force to control; (viii) subject to Section 15(b), the declaration by a nationally or internationally recognized health entity of a pandemic, epidemic or disease outbreak; and (ix) police, military or formal government action in response to a formally declared state of war, hostility, emergency, or pandemic. The provisions of this Order shall not be construed as requiring either Party hereto to accede to the demands of labour and labour unions that it considers unreasonable.

(b) For the avoidance of ambiguity, events or conditions (i) through (ix) above are intended to be an exclusive list of Events of Force Majeure. The following specifically shall not constitute nor be excused by Events of Force Majeure: (i) late performance by Supplier or one of its subcontractors caused by a shortage of supervisors or labour, inefficiencies or similar occurrences; (ii) late delivery of equipment or materials unless caused by the Event of Force Majeure; (iii) financial hardship, insolvency or changes in the market or economy, whether directly or indirectly due to an Event of Force Majeure or other unrelated circumstances; (iv) weather conditions that are typical of the location in which this Order is performed or that could reasonably be anticipated; and (v) any failure by Supplier to fulfill any term or perform any obligation under this Order as a consequence of the COVID-19 Pandemic, unless: (A) following the commencement of Supplier's performance under this Order, there is a material change in the state of the COVID-19 Pandemic; and (B) Supplier could not have prevented such failure with the exercise of reasonable diligence, including complying with its mitigation obligations specified in Section 15(d)(i) and the development and execution of the business continuity plan specified in Section 15(d)(ii).

(c) Effect:

(i) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Order, but subject to Section 15(b), neither Party shall be liable for any failure to fulfill any term or perform any obligation hereunder if such fulfillment or performance has become illegal or impossible as a consequence of an Event of Force Majeure and the non-performing Party gives written notice as soon as reasonably possible (and in no event later than 72 hours after the beginning of any cause for delay) specifying (A) the nature of the Event of Force Majeure; (B) how performance is affected; (C) the estimated period of delay; and (D) the measures undertaken by the non-performing Party to mitigate any adverse effects.

(ii) Any impacts on the scheduled delivery date or date of performance resulting from an Event of Force Majeure shall be agreed upon as between Owner and Supplier.

(iii) Notwithstanding anything else in this Order, if an Event of Force Majeure occurs on the part of Supplier, Owner will have no obligation to pay any fees for obligations that Supplier fails to provide in accordance with this Order.

(iv) The performance of obligations under this Order shall be suspended during any Event of Force Majeure and shall be resumed at the earliest possible time after the Event of Force Majeure has ceased. Unless the Event of Force Majeure prevents the resumption of performance by Supplier or makes performance impossible or illegal, an Event of Force Majeure shall not operate to excuse, but only to delay, performance. No delay or failure of performance caused by an Event of Force Majeure shall constitute a default under this Order provided that the terms and conditions of this Section 15 are satisfied. If any Event of Force Majeure involving Supplier or Supplier's suppliers or subcontractors (A) disrupts, or threatens to disrupt, Owner's operations; or (B) lasts for more than 20 days, Owner may, by written notice, terminate all obligations and liabilities imposed on it by this Order except for the obligation to pay the reasonable costs and expenses incurred by Supplier in the course of its performance of its obligations thereunder prior to such notice of termination.

(d) Duty to Mitigate:

(i) Supplier shall promptly use its best efforts to mitigate or remove any effects of the Event of Force Majeure on Owner and on the scheduled delivery date or date of performance. In the event Supplier fails to mitigate or remove the effects of an Event of Force Majeure and resume performance, if such mitigation, removal, and resumption of performance is possible and not illegal, Supplier shall be deemed to have waived any entitlement to a change to such schedule. In addition, such failure shall constitute a material default under this Order, and Owner shall have the right to immediately terminate this Order. To the extent that Owner has any increased costs or expenses associated with Supplier's inability to perform due to an Event of Force Majeure, Supplier shall promptly reimburse Owner for these costs and expenses.

- (ii) Supplier acknowledges and agrees that: (A) this Order is being negotiated and executed during the COVID-19 Pandemic; and (B) Supplier has implemented measures to mitigate the operational risks associated with the COVID-19 Pandemic and developed a business continuity plan which provides measures and procedures designed to ensure the continued ability to perform its obligations under this Order in the event the COVID-19 Pandemic adversely impacts Supplier's operations.

16. COMPLIANCE:

Supplier agrees that, in performing hereunder, Supplier will comply with all applicable laws including all applicable legislation, permits, rules, regulations, and orders including those governing equal and fair employment practices, environmental, safety, health, and vocational rehabilitation, personal information privacy, affirmative action programs, and packing, labelling and carriage of Goods.

17. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY:

- (a) Buyer is and will be the exclusive owner of, and have all Intellectual Property rights in and to:
  - (i) all custom deliverables provided by Supplier to Buyer in connection with this Order excluding, for greater certainty, any standard documentation provided by Supplier to its customers generally;
  - (ii) all information and data generated by Supplier in carrying out its obligations under this Order or generated by or on behalf of Buyer; and
  - (iii) any other deliverable in which the Intellectual Property is to vest in Buyer as contemplated on the face of this Order, (collectively, "Work Product"). All right, title and interest, including all Intellectual Property rights, in Work Product will vest in Buyer immediately upon creation or first reduction to practice, and regardless of the state of completion of such Work Product and will, to the extent applicable, be deemed a "work made for hire" (as defined in Title 17 of the United States Code).

- (b) Supplier:
  - (i) will promptly disclose to Buyer the creation or first reduction to practice of any Work Product;
  - (ii) hereby assigns and transfers, agrees to assign and transfer, and agrees to cause its Representatives to assign and transfer, all right, title and interest (including all Intellectual Property rights) in and to all Work Product, as and when created, to Buyer;
  - (iii) will obtain unconditional and irrevocable waivers for the benefit of Buyer, its Affiliates and its assignees, from all individuals involved in the creation or first reduction to practice of any Work Product, of all rights which cannot be assigned, including moral rights; and
  - (iv) will execute and cause its Representatives to execute such assignments and other documents as may be necessary to confirm the allocation of ownership of Intellectual Property rights as contemplated in this Section 17.
- (c) Buyer acknowledges that the performance of the Services and the supply of the Goods by Supplier under this Order requires the skills and know-how of Supplier, including all concepts, know-how, ideas, knowledge, methodologies, and techniques developed by Supplier other than Work Product (collectively, the "Know-How").
- (d) Nothing contained in this Order prohibits Supplier from using any of the Know-How to perform similar services for others; provided, however, that Supplier will not use any of Buyer's Confidential Information (as defined in Section 1.1(a)(ii)) in providing services to others.

- (e) Supplier hereby grants to Buyer and its Affiliates a non-exclusive, worldwide, irrevocable, perpetual, royalty free, assignable license (with the right to sublicense to their service providers) to access, use, copy, develop derivative works from, modify, or enhance:
  - (i) the Know-How as reasonably necessary for Buyer and its Affiliates to receive and benefit from the performance of the Services and the supply of the Goods and to exercise their rights in any deliverables provided by Supplier to Buyer or any of its Affiliates in connection therewith; and
  - (ii) any deliverables provided in connection with this Order (excluding Work Product) in connection with the use of such deliverables for the benefit of Buyer and its Affiliates, subject to the terms, conditions and restrictions set forth herein.
- (f) Supplier shall be liable to and in addition shall indemnify and hold harmless Buyer Group and users of said items from and against any and all losses, liabilities, costs, charges or expenses (including legal costs and disbursements on a full indemnity basis) and damages whatsoever arising out of any actual or alleged infringement, misuse or misappropriation of Intellectual Property rights relating to any Goods, Services or deliverables provided hereunder by Supplier or its Representatives or the use thereof by Buyer or any of its Affiliates. If Buyer or any of its Affiliates becomes subject to a claim as set forth above, Supplier, without limiting its obligations set forth in this Section 17, will:
  - (i) procure for itself as agent on behalf of Buyer, the applicable Buyer Affiliate(s) or both, the right to continue to:
    - A. perform or have performed the Services, and
    - B. use the infringing deliverable or Goods, as applicable; or
  - (ii) modify the Goods, the performance of the Services and/or the deliverable, as applicable, to eliminate the infringement without causing any material adverse change to the Goods, Services or deliverable, as applicable.
- (g) The provisions of this Section 17 shall survive the termination of this Order.

18. CONFIDENTIALITY:

- (a) Definitions
  - (i) “Disclosing Party” means the Party to whom Confidential Information relates.
  - (ii) With respect to each Party, “Confidential Information” means all information and data of the Party including information concerning the Disclosing Party’s past, present or future business, operations, technology, customers or suppliers, other than information that is:
    - (A) or has become publicly available through no fault of the Receiving Party, its Affiliates or subcontractors;
    - (B) lawfully received from an independent third party without any obligation of confidentiality;
    - (C) independently developed by the Receiving Party without use of the Disclosing Party’s Confidential Information; or

Moreover, Confidential Information regarding any combination of features shall not be deemed to be within categories in Sections 18(a)(ii)(A), (B), (C), or (D) unless such combination, and not merely the individual features thereof, is specifically within one of said categories.
  - (iv) “Personal Information” means any information about an identifiable individual, other than that individual’s business title or business contact information, when collected, used or disclosed for the purposes of enabling the individual to be contacted in relation to the individual’s business responsibilities.

  - (ii) not use or reproduce Confidential Information of the Disclosing Party for any purpose other than as and to the extent expressly permitted under this Order or as may be reasonably necessary for the exercise of its rights or the performance of its obligations under this Order; and
  - (iii) not disclose, provide access to, transfer or otherwise make available any Confidential Information of the Disclosing Party, except as expressly permitted in this Order.

- (d) Deemed Breach by Supplier For clarity, any breach of this Section 18 by any Person to whom Supplier has disclosed Confidential Information of Buyer that would otherwise have been a breach if performed by Supplier, will be deemed to be a breach of this Section 18 by Supplier.
- (e) Return of Buyer Confidential Information Supplier shall, upon the expiration or termination of this Order or upon Buyer’s request, immediately submit to Buyer, or, if requested by Buyer, destroy all of Buyer’s Confidential Information.
